All place names are in Massachusetts unless otherwise noted.

The earliest records show the spelling of the name as Finney, and the Plymouth and Bristol lines, with but a single exception, have retained this spelling. The Barnstable line, however, from the first adopted that of Phinney. There was another family, settled in Connecticut of the name of Pinney, which should not be confounded with the Barnstable Phinneys, some of whom removed to that state.

This family appears to have come from England before 1631, and consisted of a mother, a daughter Catherine, and two sons, Robert and John. "Mother Finney" died in Plymouth, April 22, 1650, "Upwards of 80 years".

Catherine died June 7, 1637, married Gabriel Fallowell, who died Dec. 28, 1667, aged 83 years.

Children, surname Fallowell:

a. John, died before 1649, married ----.

b. Ann, died May, 1646, married in Plymouth, Jan. 28, 1637,

Thomas Pope, born in England, 1608, died in Dartmouth, Oct., 1683. Thomas married (2) Sarah Jenney of Plymouth.

Robert, born about 1608, died Jan. 7, 1687/88, married Sept 1, 1641, Phebe Ripley, who was born 1619, died Oct 9, 1710, in her 92nd year. They resided in Plymouth. Having no issue he willed his property in Plymouth to his two nephews, Robert and Josiah, the sons of his brother, John.

1. John Finney, called "John the Pilgrim", died in Swansea, probably soon after 1702; married (1) Christiana, who died in Plymouth, Sept. 9, 1649, married (2) June 10, 1650 (Barnstable Records), Abigail (Bishop) Coggin, widow of Henry Coggin (he died June 16, 1649), daughter of Thomas Bishop; Abigail was buried May 6, 1653 (Barnstable Records). John married (3) June 26, 1654 (Barnstable Records), Elizabeth Bailey, who was buried in Bristol, Feb. 9, 1683/84.

John received a grant of land in Plymouth in 1639, and again in 1640 and in 1641. He was made a freeman in 1644, was exciseman from 1646 to 1648, and served on several juries. With his son, John Jr., he was admitted a freeman of Barnstable, May 29, 1670, where John finally settled. He was at one time a resident of Scituate, and later joined the company which settled Bristol in 1680, but in 1682 he sold his interest in the Mount Hope lands at Bristol to his son Jonathan. From 1682 no record of him appears till 1702, when he seems to have removed to Swansea. He probably died soon after as a deed was executed by him at that time which he signed with a mark.

Children by first wife, Christiana, born in Plymouth:

- *2. L. John, born Dec. 24, 1638.

3. II. Thomas, born about 1640, died 1681.
